

Think about having your next company meeting, church group retreat or family reunion at Living Waters!

The lodge and fellowship centre at LWC are our comfortable winterized buildings for fall and winter recreation. The property is surrounded by trails for quadriding and snowmobiling, as well as cross-country skiing and snowshoeing and the lake makes a great ice rink in winter.

Swimming at a sandy beach, canoeing and paddleboarding, playgrounds, bouldering wall, outdoor trampolines, pickleball or gagaball, peaceful reading or walks—make the most of our sunny Saskatchewan summers! Speakers: Ken Bombay, John Drisner

Pastor Ken Bombay is a camp speaker, a pastor, and a friend to many! "A preacher once said "Ken Bombay taught me as a young preacher... Holy Spirit will roll in and out like a wave or ocean tide if we would just wait in His presence. He will interrupt human conversation with wind words. We need to hear from Heaven!"

Pastors John and Donna Drisner are not strangers to the Saskatchewan District and Living Waters Camp. John grew up in a Pentecostal pastor's home in Alberta. In 1975 he met Donna (a deacon's daughter from Montreal, Quebec) and they got married in 1976. They are both ordained ministers. In 2026 they were recognized for "fifty years of credentialed ministry" by the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. John and Donna are the proud parents of three sons (all Saskatchewan residents), love the gals they married, and their eight amazing grandchildren. They are presently serving as volunteers in Estonia, Mexico, and Zimbabwe with the PAOC's Global Ed ministry. Pastor John also serves as the Prayer Coordinator for the Saskatchewan District.

There is only a $25 per person fee to register for this camp. A free will offering will be taken to cover any other expenses. Please register and reserve your accommodation by calling the office at 306-260-9530.

Remember to bring your own bedding. Also, some find a small fan and/or heater helpful, since Late June weather can be unpredictable.
